Election Procedures

This procedure follows the basic ideas outlined on pages S32 and S33 of the General Service Manual. The format takes into account the relatively small size of the district while still acknowledging the spiritual principles that guide AA election.

1. Those standing for election make themselves available, in person, at the District meeting at which elections are being held.
2. Those making themselves available then qualify themselves to the voting body. Qualifying usually entails stating how long one has been sober, what previous service positions one has held, and any other special skills one might feel will help them serve in the specific position.
3. Candidates, after qualifying, will then leave the room so that the voting body may have discussion, if necessary, and vote.
4. To be elected, a candidate must have substantial unanimity, hereby defined as 2/3 majority.
5. Should substantial unanimity not be reached in 3 votes, the top two candidates' names will be placed in a hat. One name will be drawn from the hat. That candidate will be considered the winner.

Budget Process

 - a. DCM/Alt DCM travel expenses are budgeted $1000.00 for DCM and $600.00 for the Alt DCM, per year to attend the four yearly Area events.

What is an "Informed Group Conscience"?

The group conscience is the collective conscience of the group membership and thus represents substantial unanimity on an issue before definitive action is taken. This is achieved by the group members through the sharing of full information, individual points of view, and the practice of AA principles. To be fully informed requires a willingness to listen to minority opinions with an open mind on sensitive issues; the group works slowly discouraging formal motions until a clear sense of its collective view emerges. Placing principles before personalities, the membership is wary of dominant opinions. Its voice is heard when a well-informed group arrives at a decision. The result rests on more than a "yes" or "no" count precisely because it's the spiritual expression of the group conscience.

The term "informed group conscience" implies that pertinent information has been studied and all views have been heard before the group votes. (The AA Group, page 34-35)

What is the "Right of Decision"?

Every trusted servant and every AA entity-at all levels of service-has the right "to decide ... how they will interpret and apply their own authority and responsibility to each particular problem or situation as it arises." That is, they can "decide which problems they will dispose of themselves and upon which matters they will report, consult, or ask specific direction." This is "the essence of 'The Right of Decision.'"

Bill warned against using "The Right of Decision" as an excuse for failure to make the proper reports of action taken; or for exceeding a clearly defined authority; or for failing to consult the proper people before making an important decision. (The Twelve Concepts for World Services Illustrated, Concept III).

GSR Functions

The GSR has the job of linking the AA group with AA as a whole. The GSRs have the responsibility of electing the district DCM and representing their Home Group at District and Area functions. In most cases, this requires the GSR to report his/her group's conscience based on informed discussions of an issue. In other cases, GSRs make decisions based on their knowledge of the group's will. The GSR also brings information regarding service opportunities back to the group. Each GSR attends the Alabama/Northwest Florida Area 1 Assemblies to vote their groups' conscience on Area business. There are a variety of other specific functions that a GSR needs to attend to carry the message of the home group. Below is a brief description of each:

Monthly District Meetings

GSRs report on Home Group activities, so that other GSRs become aware of how other groups are doing, and how they are solving group problems. The District financial report is gone over to see how the district stands for money, and any other concerns of the home group, district, area, and AA as a whole are discussed. The D.C.M. brings back important Area information to the GSRs to be taken back to the home group for discussion. District 23 typically holds a monthly business meeting at a location determined by the committee.

The Delegates Report

The Delegates Report, held after the delegate gets back from the Conference in April, is where the districts get together with the delegate to go over what happened at the conference. What Conference agenda items have passed, or failed, and why are discussed. The delegate also brings back any pertinent information concerning AA as a whole that the groups need to know.

Quarterly Area 1 Assembly

The Area 1 Assembly works off of the 2-year rotation with officer and committee chairs general being elected in October of the perverse year, then with them stepping in on the first of the odd number year following the election for a 2-year service position. The first quarterly assembly of the year is generally held in January and on the first assembly of the 2-year rotation function as an oration assembly, then it will be a general assembly the following year. The second Area 1 Assembly of the year, generally held late March or early April, is the pre-conference assembly having the purpose of informing the Area 1 delegate with the area group conscience for the upcoming general service conference agenda items. The 3 assembly of the year is normally held in July, it will function as a time for the Area 1 Delegate to give the report of what happened at the general service conference and the outcome from the agenda items of the year and any floor action that comes as a result of the conference. The last is generally held in October; it will function as a general assembly in the first year of the rotation. But in the second year, it will be an election assembly where we elect Area 1 officers and committee chairs. Elections will be held on Saturday instead of regular committee meetings and workshops.

What are Standing Committee Workshops?

Standing committee workshops are held on a quarterly basis. These workshops serve to allow district committees the opportunity to benefit from the experience of the area committees and the area as a whole. Questions are asked and answers are considered. These workshops, typically, are held on Saturdays and last 4 hours.

What Does the Delegate Do?

The Delegate has a demanding job, not only because a large amount of time and work are involved, but because it is the delegate's responsibility to serve worldwide AA as voting members of the Conference. Delegates bring to its deliberation the experience and viewpoints of their own areas. Yet they are not representatives of their areas in the usual political sense; after hearing all points of view and becoming fully informed during Conference discussion, they vote in the best interest of AA as a whole. (Service Manual, page S-44)

What is the Conference and Why is the Group Conscience Important?

The final agenda for any Conference consists of items suggested by individual AA members, delegates, trustees, area assemblies, and directors and staff members of A.A.W.S. and The Grapevine. The Conference considers matters of policy for AA as a whole, and there are tried-and-true procedures for placing an item on the agenda in the most effective way or, when the suggestion does not concern overall policy, for routing it to the most appropriate part of the service structure. If a GSR has an idea for an agenda item, chances are that he or she will want to discuss it first with the group, then at a district or area meeting, which can then forward it to the staff member at G.S.O. currently serving as Conference coordinator. (Service Manual, S-51)

What is G.S.O.?

The General Service Office is where all the day-to-day business of AA as a whole happens. G.S.O. serves all groups in the U.S. and Canada, and also offers services to AAs overseas, especially in countries where there is no service structure. It serves as a clearing house and exchange point for the wealth of AA experience accumulated over the years, coordinates a wide array of activities and services, and oversees publications and distribution of AA Conference-approved literature and service manuals. (Service Manual, Page S-71)

What is the Service Manual?

The Service Manual is the general guidelines by which we AA's conduct our business. It includes the responsibilities/qualifications of specific service positions, also describing functions, links of communications and responsibilities of the A.A.W.S. and the Grapevine which are separately organized.

Information On Contributions

As discussed in the AA pamphlet, Self-Support: Where Money and Spirituality Mix: "To help support AA's essential services, the General Service Conference suggests that individual groups, through an informed group conscience, adopt a specific contribution plan tailored to meet the group's financial situation. Once the basic group expenses have been taken care of (rent, refreshments, AA literature, local meeting lists, GSR travel expenses to attend service functions), and a "prudent reserve" has been set aside to cover any emergency contingencies that might arise, the group may decide to further carry the message by sending money..."

Contributions to the District

This covers the cost of rent, printing of schedules, purchasing literature, and other expenses, such as reimbursing the expenses of District Trusted Servants (stamps, phone, copying, quarterlies, etc.).

Contributions to the Area 1 Alabama/Northwest Florida

Covers the costs of coordinating the efforts of the service structures throughout the Area, such as Area Newsletter, literature for committees and expenses of Area Trusted Servants.

Contributions to the General Service Office in New York

To help cover the cost of printing literature, operating expenses, and to carry the message of AA worldwide.

Contribution Addresses

How funds are dispersed should always be decided by the group conscience of your home group. Whenever mailing checks to the District, Area and/or GSO, always include the Group Name, Group Number, and District Number so that they can be properly accounted for.

Appendix E – Robert's Rules – Simplified!

The Basic Rules of Parliamentary Procedure:

The organization (committee) has the right to make its own rules which then must be observed by all members. All (voting) members are equal and their rights are equal.

A quorum must be present to do business.

- In a committee, a quorum is the majority of its (voting) members.

The majority rules.

- The minority has a right to be heard, but once a decision has been reached by a majority of the voting members present, the minority must abide by that decision.

Silence is consent.

- Those members who do not vote (abstain) agree to go along with the decision of the majority by their silence.

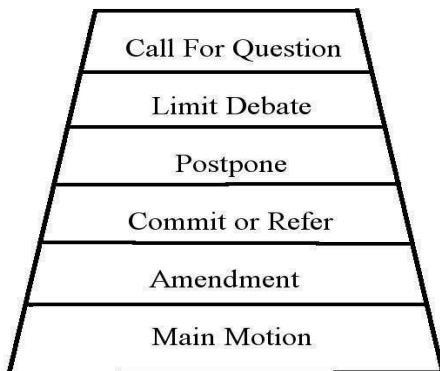

One question at a time, and one speaker at a time.

- No motion is in order which does not directly relate to the question being considered.
- Once a member has been “granted the floor”, another member may not interrupt him. Debatable motions must receive full debate.
- The chairperson may not put a motion to vote as long as members wish to debate it. Debate can only be suspended by a two-third vote of members present.

Personal remarks in debate are always out of order.

- Please keep in mind that District 23 (and Area 1) uses Robert’s Rules loosely; we do not use it against each other, but rather to help us conduct business smoothly!

From Robert’s Rules in Plain English , by Doris P. Zimmerman

Rank of Motions

Motions take precedence in order of rank, main motions are always lowest rank, calling for questions would be highest.

Definition of types of motions

- Main: A proposal or action, or opinion expressed
- Amendment: To change the wording of a motion to make it clearer, more complete, or more acceptable before the motion is voted upon.
- Commit or Refer: To send the question on the floor to a small group of people so it can be carefully studied and put into proper form for the group to consider.
- Postpone: To delay action on a question until later in the same meeting, or until the next meeting. A motion cannot be postponed further than the next regular meeting.
- Limit Debate: To exercise special control over a debate by: a) Reduce the number and length of speeches allowed; b) limit debate to a period of time, at the end of which a vote must be taken.
- Previous Question (Call For Question): Used to cut off debate and bring group to immediate vote upon the pending motion (the motion on the floor that was stated last).
